TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY OF THE YEAR C

Wisdom 9:13-18b: The reading acknowledges that people have had a difficult time attempting to know God's wishes. At times we have difficulty understanding the things that happen on earth. Therefore, learning of things in heaven would have been impossible, except that God sent us wisdom and the Holy Spirit to help us understand him.

Philemon 9-10:12-17: Paul writes to Philemon regarding Onesimus, a slave who ran away and encountered Paul. Although Paul wished Onesimus could remain with him, he did not want to violate Philemon's wishes. Paul asks that Philemon receives his friend Onesimus as a beloved brother, not as a slave. He closes by saying, "Welcome him as you would me."

Luke 14:25-33: Jesus warns people who wish to follow him that they must abandon everyone else first. A person calculates the amount of money needed to complete a project before they begin it. In the same way, Jesus warns these people to consider exactly what is involved before they make a commitment to follow him.

Discussion Question: How do we care for those who are under our charge and responsibility?

Comento: La decisione per il Regno richiede maturità e serietà, perseveranza e fatica, intelligente e proghrama: "chi ha posto mano all aratro e si volge indietro non è adatto per il regno di Dio." G. Ravasi

Comentario del domingo "Todos hemos sido convidados; cuantos más defectos tengamos, cuantos más enfermos estemos, más derecho tenemos a que el médico nos visite o a entrar en la casa del médico y medicina de nuestra vida, que es Cristo." A. von Rechnitz González
