SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER YEAR A

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17 Peter and John complete what was begun at their baptism by laying hands on a group of Christians in Samaria.

I Peter 3:15-18 It is a desirable thing to suffer for the sake of good, as Christ did for us.

John 14: 15-21 The Lord prays that the Holy Spirit, the Advocate may always lead his followers in the truth that he has revealed: they are to love one another as He has loved us.

Discussion Question: How can we imitate the love of Jesus at home and in our community?

Commento: La Chiesa del Risorto non conosce barriere politiche e culturali e continua a realizzare il progetto di evangelizzazione tracciato dal Cristo stesso.

Comentario del domingo “En un mundo en que se ha puesto de moda la cultura de la muerte, Cristo se nos presenta como el único camino hacia la vida verdadera frente a un mundo de violencia, crimen y perversión, donde las ambiciones de dinero, placer y poder están muy por encima de la vida humana. – Alberto Martín Jiménez

FROM THE PASTOR

Last Monday at the Parish Council Meeting the entire time was devoted to the PARISH FEAST PLANNING MEETING. We have planned to have the feast as last year on Sunday, the actual date of the feast with an outdoor Mass at 10:30 at DeLuca Park. It will be preceded by a procession to an outdoor tent and Mass will be celebrated under the tent, a means of recognizing our great diversity as a parish. Families that who come from various cultures are encouraged to share their gifts and talents during the Mass or during the entertainment that will follow. We are asking families to prepare their own food, picnic style. The parish will provide hot dogs and water for all. We have parceled out the persons who are coordinating the various components, but we need volunteers to assist with set-up; food preparation and distribution, liturgy, entertainment, children games, logistics and clean-up. Contact the parish office, if you can volunteer and make this another year of a special Parish Feast for Our Lady of Mount Carmel. Fr. Bob

THANK YOU

I am grateful for all those who participated at the REVIVE retreat for our parish Cluster at Transfiguration Church. I am sure that it would be an annual event among our parishes. Fr. Bob
