12TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR A

Jeremiah 20: 10-13 God protects His servant from the calumny and the plotting of his enemies .

Romans 5:12-15 Paul reminds us of Adam's sin and the limitations of the law, to emphasize the greatness of the gift of God's own Son.

Matthew 10:26-33 The Lord cautions us against anxiety and fear. We must have confidence in the truth of God's love for us.

Discussion Question: What is it that makes us most afraid? Loss of a loved one, a job or one's health? How can we learn to live with that anxiety?

Commento: Ancora una volta la Bibbia dimostra di non conoscere la disperazione totale: anche nell'esperienza più amara fa rprofilare all'orizzonte un barlume di speranza nel Dio giusto. - G. Ravasi.

Comentario del Domingo "Aun cuando pueden estar hartos de las cosas de este mundo, sufren mortalmente la ausencia de las cosas de Dios en su propia vida, o peor aún, sienten el hambre voraz, pero no saben de qué se trata." – Alberto Martín Jiménez

FROM THE PASTOR

In preparation those who are now newly confirmed had written letters to me and to Bishop Jude. I would like to share some of their comments:

"I have gone to Church almost my whole life in order to know what to do."

"I hope to be able to continue to serve our community and grow spiritually and become more mature."

"We cannot be wholly self-centered, of course, not if we understand what it means to be a member of Christ's Mystical Body, and not if we understand the significance of the Mass."

"I would like to receive the seven gifts and the twelve fruits of the Holy Spirit which would give me courage to practice my faith as I grow in my spiritual journey."

The journey of faith takes various dips and turns and reading these letters, it appears to me that the Holy Spirit is active and alive. Fr. Bob
