READINGS 33RD OF THE YEAR

Malachi 3:19-20 God's people's long for his presence and God promises to send to them the sun of justice with healing rays.

II Thessalonians 3:7-12 Paul urges the Christian community to work hard and fast for the sake of the gospel and not act like busy bodies.

Luke 21: 5-19 Jesus warns his disciples to be ever vigilant. He speaks of persecution and imprisonment, but they need be afraid, God will watch over them.

Discussion Question: How do we encourage our families and neighbors to do what is right and just?

Commento: È solo con questa fedeltà al suo lavoro e alle potenzialità di sviluppo dei suoi doni interiori, umani e religiosi, che egli prepara l'avvento del Regno di giustizia e di verità.” G.Ravasi

Comentario del domingo “Como Dios es solamente Dios de vivos, y Dios es Dios de Abraham y de Isaac y de Jacob, todos van a volver a vivir y su muerte no es hecho definitivo.” A. von Rechnitz González

Every Thurs evening from 7:00 – 9:45 there are Bingo games and Bell Jar games that are played in the School Auditorium. All of the proceeds from these games go to the support of OLMC School (about $55,000.00 per year).

FR. VINCENT LANCELLOTTI

This past Monday, a funeral Mass was celebrated here with Cardinal Dolan for our former Pastor Vincent Lancellotti Pastor from July 1991 until March 2001. Among other things, Fr. Lancellotti was responsible for the beautiful renovation of the church interior and our wonderful music program. Fr. Bonicci who preached elegantly about Fr. Vincent pointed out the qualities that made him a fine pastor.

Bishop Jude, who arrived at OLMC as an Associate with Fr. Lancellotti sent a beautiful letter. “He showed a real distinction in the management of the Parish resources to renovate the Church and upgraded the rectory and the Church with high quality artistic materials that expressed his faith and love for Jesus and the Church. For Fr. Lancellotti only the best was good for God.”

NEW MASS SCHEDULE NOVEMBER 27

Remember that the parish voted on an adjustment to the Mass schedule which will go into effect the First Sunday of Advent, Nov. 27. As of that date there will be NO 7:00 Sunday evening Mass. It will be discontinued to allow the parish resources and personnel to be used for the other Masses. The Parish has an evening Mass on Saturdays at 5:00 PM.

There continues to be an evening Mass at 5:00 pm at OLMC in White Plains and 7:00 pm Sacred Heart in Hartsdale.

INCREASED OFFERTORY CAMPAIGN

Please consider increasing your weekly contribution.

FROM THE PASTOR

As I write this, there is no information about the election results. There are many more who have yet to vote. But regardless of outcome, we need to support our elected officials and the our imperfect but working system of government. There is ample reason in the writings of St. Paul when he asks for our prayers for those who govern us. Monday, the new Archbishop of Newark, NJ was announced, Cardinal delegate Tobin.

At a news conference in Sacred heart Cathedral, Archbishop Tobin said he was concerned that the “red-state, blue-state mentality” that had polarized the country had also infected the church, but that the church could help the country heal the divide after the election.

Whoever, wins the election, we need to pray for them and work to grow together to address the difficulties that challenge us.
