Discussion Question: How can we not let ourselves be discouraged, and not up hope?

Comento: Per questo egli elogia la fede, la fede di chi sa accontentarsi delle briciole e a cui invece il Signore dà il pane.

Comentario del domingo: Las lecturas bíblicas de este domingo están centradas sobre un dato fundamental, para el creyente: el universalismo. Por

FROM THE PASTOR

Letters from the Newly confirmed:

"As a 13 year old teen I have changed a lot. I've chosen to be part of the mission of Christ.."

"My hours at the soup kitchen really helped to open my eyes as well. I saw how the Holy Spirit helped all those people to be hopeful for a better life."

"Receiving the sacraments was my decision because I wanted God to be with me no matter what and to learn about him."

"I will never treat others with disrespect. I will always treat them with the right manners, if someone ever does wrong to me I will never try and get revenge, all I will do is forgive; its taking responsibility of living a Christian life."

The journey of faith takes various dips and turns and reading these letters, it appears to me that the Holy Spirit is active and alive. Fr. Bob

RELIGIOUS ED REGISTRATION

SACRAMENTAL LITURGIES: BAPTISM

There are two anointings that take place during the baptism of infants. The first anointing occurs after the litany of the saints when the presider or assistant anoints the chest with the oil of catechumens, also called the oil of salvation. This takes place after the exorcism, both are vestiges of the ancient baptismal rite, recalling the order of catechumen. In essence both the exorcism and the anointing ask the Lord to free the children from anything that would hinder his/her development in faith.
