29TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR A

Isaiah 45: 1,4-6 It is the Lord who is the source of all power and authority.

I Thessalonians 1: 1-5 St. Paul explains that the gospel is not merely a collection of words but it is filled with the Holy Spirit and power.

Matthew 22: 15-21 Loyalty to God and the execution of His will is more compelling than that we owe to any other authority, political or otherwise.

Discussion Question: How can we be both a good Christians and a good citizens? What does a responsible Christian do when faced with an unjust law?

Commento: "La fedeltà della scelta religiosa è la migliore garanzia per una santa laicità della prassi politica." G. Ravasi

Comentario por el domingo que viene: El cristiano trata de ser "imagen de Dios" promoviendo la libertad, la justicia, la paz y el progreso de los pueblos. La fidelidad en lo religioso es la mejor garantía para una sana laicidad de la praxis política. Andrés Pardo

COMMUNION CANDIDATES 2018

This weekend our new Communion candidates made their promises and commitment to prepare themselves for the sacrament by the service that they offer for the church and the community. Their parents and the congregations also promised to support them. Fr. Bob

RELIGIOUS ED

There will be Family Catechesis this Saturday October 28th; this is presented for children who attend OLMC School as well as our Religious Education program. The theme of the day will be the Mass, Presentations will be conducted in English and Spanish. Sessions will be given for both parents and children and a joint activity for the entire family.

SACRAMENTAL LITURGIES: BAPTISM

The clothing of the baby with the white garments takes place after the baptism and anointing with Chrism. The white garments now placed on the child after he or she has been baptized is a wonderful sign to the community that they have been purified and are now members of the Christian assembly. This dressing that occurs after the baptism, not when they arrive in church, reflects the action of the early church when catechumens were led out in their old garments and re-entered the church with their long white gowns that signified to all present, that they had been baptized.
